Gardner Marathon ners in the quarter and half mile races.
Entries for any of the races can be

Gordon Coola, two-time winner of the Gardner marathon, will have competition in the ten-mile race to be held at the Fair grounds on Decoration day. The ten-mile favorite has been having things pretty much his own way for some time, but William Azul, a full blood Pima Indian, from Sacaton, is out to win the next ten-mile jaunt.

Azul is no stranger to the long Azul is no stranger to the long runs, having competed in three big races and winning each event.

Last year Azul won the Sweets trophy and on May 30, 1919, he won the 15-mile race and Business men's cup in the first annual meeting of the Los Angeles Athletic club at Ocean park.

In 1915 Azul won the Sawtelle modified marathon over a nine-mile course against a field of 11 entries.

The Pima running star is 22 years of age and has been developed under the guidance of the coach of the Sacaton Indian school. He will be ac-

Western Giants Play Browns At Eastlake Today

The Western Giants come home today for a nine-inning session with the Phoenix Browns at Eastlake park. Both teams are backed by local fans with the opinion evenly divided on Manager Hicks says White will be on the mound with everything he carries and the fielders will do their part to hold the ball in case the Brown swatters connect, which Hicks says will not be.

The Giants hit a sudden slump and

The Glants hit a sudden slump and went down to defeat just about the time they needed a few wins to hold first place. When the slump came, Hicks rendered first ald to the trembling crew and now they expect to win. If the fighting spirit counts, the Glants will fare well this afternoon.

Manager Garrett has cast about until he annexed a couple of good men to fill the weak spots and his third base find in Sanchez is the one hig event in local baseball circles. Sanchez was the star catcher of the Copper league last year working with Salazar at Superior. Kreigbaum, formerly of the University of Arizona, will fill an outfield position where the Browns were wobbling. where the Browns were wobb

The Brown infield will be in keeping with the outfield and the bitting power of the team as a whole will show a big improvement in batting. The Giant's line-up today: Quitts, third base; Rosser, second base; Fritz, short stop; F. White, catcher; Teabone, first base; Arbow, center field; J. B., left field; King, right field; Wiz White, pitcher.
